

Arvind Narula

Founder & CEO -Urmatt - Thailand

Arvind Narula, owner and CEO of Urmatt Ltd., Thailand, has over 30 years of experience in contract farming in Thailand. His projects select high value crops and target the poorest farmers with price guarantees, agronomic training and funding. He has launched or consulted for projects in Thailand, Myanmar, Argentina, Tanzania, India, Sierra Leone, Sweden and Singapore. Every project is aimed at poverty alleviation through profitable impact investment.

Arvind is a graduate of the Schiller University, Paris and also attended the Sorbonne and the Chulalongkorn University's Sasin Executive Program. He is a sought after speaker at international rice conferences and Impact Forums. He speaks English, Thai, French, German, Punjabi and Hindi and some Japanese.

Arvind is the Regional Chairman of the World Presidents Organization for S.E. Asia. He is also a founder and director of : Organic Latin America SA, Argentina, Hill Tribe Organics Ltd., Thailand, Coco Nuts Ltd., Thailand, Youji Ltd. Hong Kong, and Perfect Earth Pte., Singapore. He has also recently acquired a stake in Rice Bran Technologies Inc. in the USA and is currently establishing Urmatt Ltd., Laos. His companies are all certified organic and he continues his growth targeting poverty alleviation through profitable inclusive businesses.

The Urmatt Group's global clients provide the basis for continued growth in organic agricultural diversification and downstream food production.

www.urmatt.com

